“ Dear Ebenger Family,
My thoughts and prayers go out to Aunt Pauline and your extended families. Your wife, mother and grandmother was certainly an angel. I still have fond memories of Aunt Pauline helping my parents out on E. 74th Street and all the birthday parties she helped to make special. I'm certain she's an angel in heaven now. Continued prayers and support to all of you.
With Love,
Victor

“ I never met Pauline Ebenger but was a close friend to her dear daughter, Mary Beth. Mary Beth shared countless stories of vacations and special outings she enjoyed with her Mom. Many, many happy, loving moments that will live on in those precious memories. Pauline was truly Mary Beth's best friend and a joy to her; she will be sorely missed. But her deep faith in God's grace and love will provide comfort and peace in knowing that one day they will be reunited. My heartfelt condolences to Mary Beth, Spencer and her family. May God grant them strength and comfort during this difficult time.

Love,
