“ One strong memory of Polly is how she took good care of my mom and dad, Irving and Roseanna Dow. She often stayed with them, kept them company, laughed with them, and helped out around the house. They were very fond of Polly and her children. We all loved her, and we will miss her.

We grew very close to our cousin Polly. She had a warm smile and cute giggle. We enjoyed sitting and talking with her when she was visiting at our parent's house. I remember how she helped take care of her younger siblings while she was young, even walking many miles carrying one of them to the doctor when he was very sick. We will miss her.
