“ My condolences for the loss of Penny. I remember her from childhood days as I was a friend of her sisters. I remembered the name, but had to look up the family names for me to connect with placing her from Susquehanna.

Dearest Penny my memory of you will always be in the innocence of youth we shared. I was honored to be a bridesmaid in your wedding as you prepared to unite your life with Dean's in holy matrimony. The joy we all shared walking from your home by the ball diamond up to the church in the center of town. You were every bit beautiful and my my what a seamstress your mother was wrapping us all in dresses from her own hand of love. Penny you will forever be a part of my tapestry. I loved you then; I love you now. May all your loved ones find peace knowing they were loved by you and that every memory is your presence. In the name of the Father and the Son, and the Holy Ghost go in peace dear soul. Your Forever Friend, Mary Pat
