“ I just heard from James yesterday and I'm heartbroken Phil, for your family and brother as well as all who loved you I'm sure! You were a kind, funny, modest person and a unselfish person. If not for you being a concerned friend you could have just went home to sleep after working all night at the bakery, but knowing I was sleeping in my car (to protect my other car which was being thieved), it was chilly for a summer night in NY and I didn't even realize I turned on the heat. Yes, you could've just went right home but instead found me half asphyxiated and saved my life! I let all of our Hauppauge Friends know and we all shed tears today! You deserve it though and your family should know that you were well admired here too! Peace be with you, I'm sure you'll be missed by many! Until we meet again.....Davey G

“ Please accept my family's heartfelt condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. May you find peace in fond memories of them, and comfort in God's biblical promise to shortly resurrect those asleep in death, and to finally rid us of the unnatural agony it inflicts forever.
