“ My friend and neighbor Ray Maniuszko. A quiet gentle man that loved the Lord. He was there at our wedding ceremony, our Strand Club reception, our grandson’s birthday parties and even a handyman at times for me when I was single and couldn’t fix a garage door. A man like a Dad; that was there for me through tragedies in 2009 and never judged and was a kind neighbor. He now walks with Jesus see you in heaven my friend.

“ I remember visiting Mr. Maniuszko at his office at Stony Brook with Rick when we were kids. He was head of Long Term Planning. I'll never forget the nameplate on his door, "Ray Maniuszko - Long Term Planning". He deliberately made the plate too short so the last 'g' in planning didn't fit. It had to be placed by itself on a separate line. I thought that was so clever and visualized the message how important planning really is. It was also a reflection of Ray's humor and approach to things. Helene and I were newlyweds living in Ray and Ann's home. They were a great inspiration to us as a young couple. Godspeed Ray. Thank you for your friendship. Ted Muenkel

“ Perhaps they are not stars, but openings in heaven, where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us, to let us know they are happy.

Rest in peace my wonderful brother-in-law Ray. You were aptly named ... a Ray of hope, a Ray of sunshine, a Raynbow for all who knew you. I will miss you.

“ My Dad was a role model of a father who always made his family a priority. A gentle soul who's loving heart touched many near and far. Everyone was always welcome and always treated as one of his own. Ask for a lending hand, he was there. Need a couple dollars, no wasn,t the answer. I am 100 percent positive I still have a balance owed to the Bank of Dad. The world has lost a beautiful, kind human being. A great father, a husband to mom for 60 years and a man whom I know touched many with the kindest heart possible. May you rest in peace Dad. You re the best father a son could ever have. I love you.
