

Regina Sarah Haas

October 11, 1930 - March 30, 2016

Regina Sarah (née Herrholtz) Haas, 85, of Estero and Bonita Springs, FL, and formerly of Latrobe, Pennsylvania, passed away on Wednesday, March 30, 2016.

She was preceded in death in 2013 by her husband of 65 years, Paul James Haas; her parents, Albert and Jennie (née Yancy-Schrack) Herrholtz; and her brothers, George and Howard Schrack.

Regina is survived by many nieces, nephews and friends who have a love and appreciation for the role Regina played in their lives.

Many thanks to the wonderful staff of American House Bonita Springs plus Our Lady of Light and St. Leo's Catholic communities for their loving care and attention over the past 15 months. These folks are angels in disguise as human beings.

To honor Regina's lifelong love of her pets and animal rescues, memorial donations can be made in her name to <http://harleypupppymilldog.com/donate/> or a charity of your choice.

As per Regina's wishes, no memorial service is planned at this time. A graveside internment service will be held later this year at St. Mary's Cemetery in Latrobe, PA, for both Regina and Paul.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home.

“ *Dear Auntie,
Miss you already. The past 5 years or so have been a whoot being with you almost daily. It has not always been easy, but it has been a labor of love. It has been a privilege to be by your side, to love you, and stand with you at the edge of eternity most recently. You faced the great unknown with bravery and grace. You set an example of staying true to your faith and to be loving to the end. Enjoy your new body and I know you have beautiful hair now! (Private joke.)*

*Love,
Kathryn Schrack
