

Richard "Dick" Pratt

June 6, 1925 - December 23, 2015

Richard "Dick" Pratt, 90, of Bonita Springs, FL, died Wednesday, December 23, 2015 at Hope Hospice. Formerly of Waltham, MA, he had been a seasonal resident for many years and full-time since 2010. He was born June 6, 1925 in Waltham, the son of Clarence Garfield and Marie Genevieve (née LeBlanc) Pratt.

A proud World War II veteran, he served honorably in the U.S. Army Infantry in the European Theatre. He worked at the Waltham Watch Factory alongside other family members, attending watchmaking school on the GI Bill. He was a master clock repairman, even after joining the Boston Gas Company, from which he retired.

Dick and Aggie, his loving wife of 68 years, traveled the world and made many friends over the years, including dear friends at Citrus Park. He was an avid bridge player. And nobody could tell a joke like he could; he made us laugh right up to the end.

Mr. Pratt is survived by his beloved wife, Agnes Marie (née LeBlanc); his children, Patricia (Jon) Reed, Marilyn (Robert) Taylor and Richard C. (Roxana) Pratt; six grandchildren, Jeremy, Corrie, Lee, Andy, Lizzie and Ricky ; and six great grandchildren, Riley, Emily, Colby, Maci, Ava and Archer.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Wednesday, January 6, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, 625 111th Ave. N., Naples. Burial will take place in Waltham at a later date.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ Richard "Dick" Pratt

---

October 09, 2023 at 03:40 AM

“ I will never forget how you were always there to lend a hand, fixing anything and everything, for anyone that needed help! I will also remember my amazing brother-in-law, as my avid bridge opponent every Saturday night!

Bruce Brady

---

Bruce Brady - January 02, 2016 at 12:18 PM