“ Since I met Richard we bonded like brothers. Birds of a feather and all that. We used to call each other brothers from another mother. I cannot express how many times I went to him for advice, which he always gave, and which was always on target. I will miss you my friend, my brother. I am sure you are providing what you gave me to the angels.

“ Richard and I reconnected at a class reunion about 25 years ago. He was a partner in an accounting firm and had transformed from a thin shy high school guy into a handsome confident gentleman. It was a joy to see him again. I am so sorry for your loss.
