

Robert K. Baum

January 24, 1939 - August 23, 2024

We fondly remember Robert “Bob” Baum, 85, of Bonita Springs, Florida. He passed away on August 23, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Bob was born on January 24, 1939, in Scranton, Pennsylvania, and grew up in Birmingham, Alabama, where his creative spirit blossomed. He had a passion for playing the flute and pursued his love for art at the University of Alabama, cementing his lifelong devotion to the Crimson Tide.

After graduating, he moved to New York City to attend the School of Visual Arts. He had a successful career in visual arts design for over 20 years before starting his own sales company.

In 1969, Bob met Jean, the love of his life, while vacationing in San Juan, Puerto Rico. They were happily married for 53 years and had two children, Jennifer and Marc.

Bob was a man of many talents, enjoying cooking, painting, sculpting and solving the New York Times Sunday crossword puzzle. However, his greatest joy came from the love and laughter he shared with his beloved family.

Predeceased by his parents, Marcus and Eileen Baum, and his brother, Lawrence Baum, he is survived by his wife, Jean, his daughter Jennifer Carroll, his son-in-law William Carroll, his son Marc, and his grandchildren, James and Liam.

A celebration of his life will be planned in the future. Donations in Bob's memory can be made to Hope Hospice at 9470 HealthPark Circle, Fort Myers, FL, or through MoreHope.org.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home, Family Owned Since 1978.

Thank you, Kathee. You were one of his favorite neighbors and got such a kick out of seeing your picture from the Springsteen concert in the paper.
