“ Dear Valerie,

I cant believe Bob has passed. I spoke to him shortly after Mother Passed.... I'm still thinking of her and all the wonderful time we all shared. The fun in Mayfield Village and then in Bonita Springs. Dad had said he was heading back to Cleveland after Mary passed I guess he was still in Fla at the time of his passing. To tell you the truth I was missing Mary and punched her name in Google to see if any photos would pop up from the days of the business in Cleveland and that's when I spotted Dads photo.

Think of you often. I saw the lovely photos of your children on Facebook, I also reached out to them hoping they would pass along my phone number to you and we could catch up.

Please reach out if you can I would love to chat.

I can be reached at jcalzada@ethanallenhotel.com.

Hope you are having a wonderful life. I look forward to chatting soon.

Love,

Joseph

“ To sweet beautiful Valerie
I met you and your Dad in Life Care of Estero.
The short time that I knew him was very special .I saw him at life care after i left. Some one drove me there for my therapy and i stopped to see him .Then i found out he went home.. I called him at home and we spoke for short while. I told him that I was not able to drive but when i could i would come see him. Then i got a call from him telling me he was at Hope Hospice.I told him as soon as i could drive i would come there.. The Dr said i could drive Thursday .So i called Bob and got no answer and i had a funny feeling in my heart. I read the obituary in today's paper. I am so sad that i did not get there but even though our friendship was short i will always think of him.i felt he really enjoyed when i crossed the hall and visited. We talked about a lot of things in our lives.

He was a wonderful man. I am sure you and your children have such special memories of your time together.I will be there Monday...

Fondly
Marjorie Dwyer
