“ I am just finding out that my high school classmate passed away several years ago. I am sad today to learn about this; i knew it was my classmate when I saw the name Robert Lee Rhou. We attended school in Lakeland, Florida at Rochelle Elementary, Junior High and High School. I fondly remember him.

“ I extend my condolences to Christa and the Rhou family. Robert was indeed a quiet man and one who I counted as a friend. In his quietness, he left memories of a life well lived and a friendship I'm happy to have encountered. He will sorely be missed.

“ With tears of sadness, I send my condolences to Frau Rhou and remember Mr. Rhou fondly. Although my elementary school year connection was more with Frau Rhou, I remember Mr. Rhou's bright smile and light-heartedness. He always made time for my brother, mother, and I whenever we stopped by. Mr. Rhou's and Frau Rhou's loving relationship always brought me a smile.

*With tender hugs and wishes of strength,

“ It is said that friends leave a foot print across our hearts. Robert left a trail across mine. We were destined to be great friends from the first time I met Robert in 1973/4 till I gave him his last shave and forever forward.
