“ This is a rather belated and interesting share. I have been for the past 14 years an employee of the US Postal Service. Through many transitions personal and agency, I now serve as a Contracting Officer for real property leases and was recently polled by a leasing specialist for a question about the Livingston IL Post Office lease. While I did not know Bob Sr. well, I did have the fortune of meeting him on occasion in the early 1980s as a consequence of Bob Jr. I came to know friends of the Ruzevich's during high school and wound up a roommate with Bob Junior at North Carolina State. Many years have passed (so many in fact that my daughter will be a freshman at the same NCSU this coming fall), and I have long since lost touch with Bob Junior. With today's touch of the button electronic world, I ran a google search for Robert Ruzevich in Livingston IL and came upon this notice of Bob Senior's passing. My belated condolences go out to the family on the passing of Bob Senior.
