“ I wish to offer my sincere condolences to the Schmeckpeper and Stall families on the loss of your beloved Bob. I met Bob in 1965 when he hired me for Peter Kiewit Sons company in Syracuse, NY. We worked together on three projects over the next six years. Our families immediately meshed and Jane and my Dora became best friends. Bob was a knowledgable, fair, and driven construction man. He was highly respected by all who dealt with him. We then parted for the next thirty years but always kept in touch. When we moved to Naples in 2006, we reconnected and renewed our friendship. I knew Bob to be loving, caring, and dedicated father and a faithful friend. My sympathy to all of you who were blessed to have known and loved him. David Schwartz, Fuquay-Varina, NC

“ Bob Schmeckpeper was a friend and fellow sportsman with my late husband, Bob DeVille. At hunting camp the was always an abundance of 'Bob's at hunting camp. I recall they may have been given numbers at times rather than a shout out and have many replies. Each time I had the occasion to be in his presence, it was a pleasure. We ran into him and his wife during mutual breakfast outings. My Bob highly respected him. The world was made richer by his life.
