“ We knew of Bob's love for motorcycles. My trip on the back of his bike through the Imperial compound will always be remembered. The body lean when making a turn was fully instructed by Bob before the turn. It had to be just the right amount of lean with the perfect speed.

Bob was a lover of motorcycles, golf, Imperial Sunday brunch and especially Jeanne.

May God comfort you in your sorrow. We wish we could be in Naples with you and provide support. You are in our prayers.

“ Bob's love of his family was unsurpassed. He was a most generous man, his heart softening and melting so easily for anyone in need. His famous daily 5pm "quality time" was mandatory, as he was truly interested in listening to you and how your day went. It was a few moments to relax, to appreciate, to show care for one another and especially to entice his loving wife Jeanne away from the computer at a decent hour! He will never be forgotten.
