“ On behalf of the United States Submarine Veterans (USSVI), I offer our sincere condolences on Robert's passing. You and your loved ones are in our thoughts and prayers. We are forever grateful for Robert's service to our country in the U.S. Submarine Service. To our Brother of the Phin we say, "Sailor, rest your oar. We have the watch. May you rest in peace and may God bless your loved ones who remain. Thank you for your service to our country." "Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always in every way." - 2 Thess 3:16.

“ *Brad and Cheryl,
On behalf of my Mom and family, my deepest condolences on the loss of your father. I remember Bob, and your mother, as fine friends of my parents. I met them several times, growing up, and felt as though you were all extended family. I am sure he will be giving full voice, in the Choir Celestial.*
