“ I knew Bob from Quail Creek. He moved away to Benita Spring quite a few years back. I always admired his daily routine at Quail Creek, golf practice at the range and physical exercises. He was always by himself whenever I saw him but I was too especially in late afternoon when the golf high achievers were fading. Missed him when he moved out. I now will miss him even more. But glad to have had the opportunity and time of meeting him. He is now gone and I am not too far behind.

My sympathy to his all his family.

“ Todd. So sorry, I just heard. I don't have to tell you what Bob meant to me. He was like a father for over a decade and one of my best friends. He had a huge impact on my and is probably why I have a kind of warped sense of humor. :-). Pat and Patti. Your memories of Bob even though a couple decades after I was close with him were spot on to how I remember him. He had a little terrier that he loved to death and stayed with him all day in his office. He would pick Him up and that “little pisser” (as Bob called him) would lick Bob's face and ears. Those moments were the happiest you would ever see him. I am proud to have known him and call him a friend.

“ Todd & Terri and families, my heart breaks for you guys. It's so hard when we lose a parent. I'm thinking of you and praying that the Lord gives you strength and comfort during this very stressful time.... God and family will help you during this time. I love you guys.....

“ Bob was our next-door neighbor at Palmira Country Club for many years. We were always amazed by his dedication to fitness, as well as his remarkable knowledge of the finance world. Occasionally we would have him over for a beer, and hear his fascinating life stories- many of which Bob would end his storytelling using his favorite line - "You just can't make this stuff up!" He loved our dog Molly, and he took great pleasure in picking her up just so she could lick his ears and make him laugh. Sending our sympathies to all Bob's family and friends. Fondly, Pat and Patti Megan.
