“ I knew Ronnie as a friend of my cousins Kevin and Bobby Fritz fifty years ago. I remember him as a real dynamic guy always into things. As an 18 year old I always looked up to him as just a cool guy. I remember one of his early business ventures "Just Jeans" and his first house where we occasionally hung out to bet football on Sunday's.

Most importantly I remember him as a kind young man who always listened when you talked and was genuinely engaged.

Because of that I was very sad to hear of his passing.
