Ron was always there for his children and that dedication continued on to his grandchildren.

Surviving are his wife Eleanor Savino O'Neill; daughter Maureen A. (Jim) Dixon of Savannah, GA; son Edward J. (Kristin) O'Neill of Bonita Springs; and 5 grandchildren Ashton E. Johnson, Noah S. Johnson, J.B. Dixon, Connor E. O'Neill and Madison A. O'Neill.

“ *Rule Number 9, mobile, back-pack slot machines on the streets of Las Vegas, baby seat in the Corvette...who else but Ronnie could dream up these things?? We are so much richer having walked through life with him. Over the years, there will be many glasses raised in his name as long as his friends are able. Here's to you, my friend, and Godspeed. Ellie, I am so sorry for your loss of your husband Ron. You played a very important part of my life as a Christian. I think of you so often and always carry the blue book you wrote in for me and my husband Joe. I am in Naples with my daughter until Wed., Oct. 27. If per chance you read this and I could meet up with you, that would be so wonderful. Dodie Pohrer 904-599-7325. I know this has got to be the Ellie I knew several years ago and love. We were also members of St. John's. 💕💕
