“ I have known Rose for many years. We were coworkers at University Hospital. She truly was a dedicated and passionate nurse. I am thankful that I was able to visit with her over the last few years. We shared many memories while together. She will always be remembered in a loving way. May God bless Jerry and her granddaughter Amanda during this time of sorrow. May she Rest In Peace.

“ I am so grateful to have known Rose since 1983 when we worked as nurses together at University Hospital in Cincinnati. Her love for the Lord and her steadfast faith was an inspiration to me and others. Rose was a wonderful caring nurse who comforted many. Rose may you rest in Paradise. You will be missed. Your friend, Mary Kay Victor ❤️🙏

“ A lovely woman. She came to our house on Manitoulin Island on their honeymoon. Picked apples from our trees and visited. I don't believe we have seen her since. Condolences to the family and thinking of you Jerry
