“ Dear Danielle and Sean, I am so sorry for your loss. My sister Jane was married to your uncle Bob for many years. I have known your dad and mom most of my life. They were a perfect couple to me. We had fun when we got together. They were both so kind and thoughtful. I live in Spring Hill Fl if you need me to do anything for you. God Bless you, Faith Savoy

“ Uncle Roy was my great uncle. He couldn't believe I was living with my boyfriend in his house without being married and in fact, wanted to speak to my boyfriend personally to convince him it was time to marry me... of course he was only teasing about this. We recently got engaged and it's heartbreaking to know uncle Roy and Aunt Barbara won't be able to see us get married this year. Seeing others memories of his teasing makes me smile - at least my sister and I weren't the only ones he was giving a hard time! My sympathies and condolences to Shawn and Danielle. I can't imagine what they're going through right now. Sending all my love.

“ I love and will miss my Uncle Roy. Growing up, I have such fond memories of a family trip out to New York. We spent lots of time in Manhattan and he and Aunt Barbara even took us to Chinatown and Little Italy. They were the best tour guides :) My twin sister Amelie and I used to laugh at the funny things he would do and say. Roy was fortunate to have visited us in Colorado when my sister and I returned from getting our wisdom teeth pulled. He would sneak around the house and take the funniest candid photos of us with our puffy cheeks filled with gauze. I will miss his playful nature and the world's best hugs. I'm so heartbroken Roy and Barbara weren't able to make it to my wedding in Colorado this past year as their health had taken a sudden turn. I knew they were there in spirit providing sunshine and absolutely perfect weather. I'll miss them both dearly.

“ Uncle Roy was so fun and playful! He really had a huge heart with very good intentions! Even when he would throw the kids in the pool or ask me if I was gaining weight it was all done in fun. He loved his family, and he loved us! He was a great, supportive friend to my mom when Tommy got in his accident. He and Barbara were loved by all and I will miss them both so much. Rest In Peace Uncle Roy and Aunt Barbara!

“ Uncle Roy, was loved by everyone. I have so many fond memories of him and aunt Barbra. Uncle Roy loved family so much and always came to my house to ask Lenny for permits to put together the family picnics which combined all families, and even those unrelated, called him “Uncle”. He was truly the friend in need and, especially, in “deed”! He helped my brother Tommy and stood by my parents side whenever they needed him. He was a teaser and affectionately tortured all of us on some level only to make us love him more. He had dance machines delivered to a couple of us, and motivated everybody to be together. It is with a very heavy and sad heart I bid goodbye to a wonderful man, we love you Uncle Roy! Rest in God’s great peace! ❤️

“ Our sympathies to Shawn and Danielle and the rest of Roy’s family on his death. We enjoyed Barbara and Roy as neighbors in Florida for many years. They were both kind and considerate neighbors and loved to have a good time. Although we have sold our place and are back in Minnesota, we will miss them both and have very fond memories of our time together.

“ Roy was a cousin, 2 years ahead of me at Flushing High School. He was a football star and a big man on campus. Although, as a freshman, we didn't have much contact, we had the same last name and I did bask-in-the-sun of his popularity. I will always remember him as popular, bigger-than-life, handsome, rugged, personable, and above all, kind and humble. I'm sorry we didn't get to know each other better.

May he rest in peace and perpetual light shine on him.
