“ I worked with Roy on a Negotiation that lasted several months. He was honest, hard working, very considerate of his team members. He had the respect of both UPSers and Teamsters. He was the company spokesman and at one point talked so long that he lost his voice. He kept talking in whispers until he started to laugh and finally ended the day's session. During off times he was a great guy to be with, funny and easy going.

Rest In Peace Roy, God bless.

“ We were so saddened to hear of Mr. Morton's passing. I will always remember all the Thanksgivings our families spent together over the years. And one especially fond memory I have is of his kindness to me and my friends when we spent Spring Break at Kelly Greens when I was in college. He was truly a kind and generous man and he will be missed greatly.

Sending our thoughts and prayers to your family during this difficult time.
