“ Rest In Peace Ry. Thank you for enlightening all that you touched. In my mind you will always stay on the adventures in the mountains. Hopping from stone to stone across the babbling stream.... finding the perfect stones to show the kids how to skip them. Catching fireflies, stoking the fire pit. Pointing out the far and away in the telescope. We are saddened you left so soon. May peace be with all as we gather Saturday to remember how you brought us together and now have more family to cherish, more friends to admire, and love to share. Love Val
