“ Sometimes Facebook brings us joy and then again shocking sadness. Sadness is what occurred just five minutes ago when I scrolled past a picture of a face that had been so important to me Bud Spiezio had been part of first my Navy life and then of my fuller life as we enjoyed family and social time together. We went from a lunch meeting in Newark to almost 15 years of meeting on Reserve weekends and the other Officer's Calls . When the Captain endeavored to make our bunch of Sailors the best Repair unit in the Navy. Thankfully he let me help in that endeavor. We spent a challenging weekend when we wound up rescuing people in small boats who were nearly swamped by tugs in the Kill off Bayonne during OpSail 76. It isn't often that men say they love another man , I loved Bud Spiezio who mentored me and helped me grow as a Naval Officer, Man and person! Nita and I are in shock and sorrow on This news Captain, the time of Crossing The Bar has come. We will man the Special Sea Detail for a Shipmate! CWO4 Russell Kauffman and Vinita

“ Bud never held a grudge. He would stand toe to toe with you, screaming and yelling and right in the middle of it all he would say “let’s go to lunch”. Picking on Bud was my favorite past time. I really enjoyed working for him!
