“ Don, Kim, Peggy and family. My heart truly breaks with the news of Sarah's illness. Your family has been a part of our lives since 1974 when your dad walked into Naples Federal and opened the very first account in our newly opened branch on Bonita Beach Rd where City Hall stand today. I loved Irene, she was a kind and loving person. Prayers to all of you during this very difficult time in our lives. I love you so much. Jane Liles and family

“ Sarah was a good friend a dependable, honest co-head Usher at St. Leo Catholic Church in Bonita for year's. She served at the 9:30 overflow Masses both at the PLC and last year in our new Auditorium.
Sarah was always friendly with everyone. Her smile was contagious.
She loved her daughter and granddaughter very much.
Sarah was a great human being who will be missed by many. 🙏🙏
