“ My lovely neighbor who I was blessed for 26 years. She Never ceased to amaze me with some of her wild stories and when I would see her walking the dogs, I would quickly grab my shoes so I could go out and join her. If we were attending a social get together in the neighbor she just wouldn't settle for one appetizer she would contribute seven. That is just how she was always GIVING. It was a pleasure Shirley having graced my life... Jill Thompson

“ I remember the happy years when Mom would come to the Salon bearing freshly baked goodies of all kinds. Everyone waited for her Monkey Bread. Shirley was a lucky woman to have the love and devotion of her son James and I too feel fortunate to count him as a friend. RIP Shirley Adams.

“ i will never forget all of our long talks and how happy you were just to see me walk in the door. You always were there for me no matter what and through you, dear mom, I found what true love, unconditional love truly was.

I know you will always be with me -- a constant reminder of what you taught me and traits I know I share with you. Your unending energy, determination.. your love of flowers, cooking, birds and the many nights we spent just watching "Animal Planet" or the "Discover Chanel" together.

I know you are watching over us now. Giving me your strength when I need it the most,. You have always and will ever be my Angel here on earth.

You help me through cub scouts and boy scouts and endless project needed for school.

You never gave up on me.. you could always light up a room with your beautiful smile and bright blue eyes.. I love you so much and miss you!
