“ Judy and I are very sad at the news of Shirley’s passing. She and her husband David were dear friends of ours. We both worked with David at Merchants Bank in Syracuse for a few years and I was privileged to meet up with him again over 20 years later when I took a position with NBT Bank in Norwich. There, Shirley and I worked together as trust officers for over ten years in the wealth management group. Shirley became a good friend to both of us and was a wonderful person to work with. She was the consummate professional who dedicated her to efforts to complete client satisfaction. She also was a great team player who supported her colleagues continuously. After her retirement to Estero, we stayed in touch and were able to get together on several occasions when she came back to upstate New York to visit friends. We last saw her in August of this year and enjoyed a visit and lunch on a beautiful sunny day at a cafe in Elbridge (near Syracuse). After lunch, we went outside to a field of sunflowers which she really enjoyed. She will be truly missed...Dave and Judy Hildebrandt
