“ I worked with Susan at FGCU for the last few years. I truly enjoyed our conversations and Susan's honesty and wit. She has always been spunky and knows her mind and doesn't hesitate to tell you either. She was a phenomenal woman and I feel truly blessed to have met her and been able to call her a friend above just a colleague.

“ Susan and I met when we were 17 years old, and became fast friends and sisters immediately! I have so so many great memories of her and all our adventures together. And yes, sometimes we together got in some trouble. Lol. We both had a lil spit fire in us, so it was meant to be!! 🤔❤️ She was a great and beautiful person and an awesome friend! So many great memories, traveling to Columbus to spend the weekend. Going to the local barn and rodeo, where her dad worked. Going to Quarter horse Congress every year and having a blast! Going to Hawaii together when we were 18! I am so heartbroken, but I am so happy my dear friend isn't suffering anymore. You fought like a warrior, and now it's time for you to be at peace. I will see you again someday my friend, and we will pick up, right where we left off!:relaxed :Love you so much! Ps. Say hi to patch for me! I know you're with your daddy now and so happy❤️❤️

“ Two memories. We both were raised far from the family homestead. At a family reunion she thought she'd get the prize for farthest traveler. But I won it, coming from Hawaii. She gave me a hard time. :). When she moved to Florida and all the craziness started on Facebook, she was always supportive of my comments. I miss her a lot, even tho we never got to spend much time together. She was spunky and witty. We need more like her. Aloha my dear cousin.

My husband and I were in Rod's Western Palace yesterday. We visited the tack shop and marveled at the fancy saddles and show equipment. I was reminded of Susan bringing her triple-starched jeans to our office at Deloitte Touche. She would stand the jeans up against the wall and they didn't move. I could not figure out how she could get them on, let alone wear them during barrel racing. I will miss her smile, laugh and candid conversations. Susan never shied away from hard work, commitment and challenges. Norm & Britt, you are in our thoughts and prayers.
