“ Dear Thiesen Family: I can't tell you how sad it was to learn you have lost your wonderful mother, wife and grandmother, Terry. She was a huge part of our lives when we lived in New York and she practically raised Stacey those five years I was working. I loved visiting her after work and talking in the kitchen about her day with Stacey and her 4 children, all running around the house. Our many times together on week-ends were endless and wonderful times that I will always cherish. I just wish I had been more a part of her life once everyone moved to Naples but have enjoyed our few past visits and exchanging Xmas cards each year always a plus. She will forever be in my heart more than you know. Diane Brackett-Smith
