“ I learned of Toms passing in 2020. 😞 I met Tom at my 18th birthday party. He asked me out to a movie for the next week. It wasn't long we became heart and soul connected partners. After serving in the USAF I moved back to the area and rekindled my relationship with my precious Tom. Loved his midnight solo bass runs. His laughter. His love. We were married. Lived and loved in Bonita Springs, Florida-and of course Dallas. So many memories. So much life. Fly high Tom. My love to his entire family. Debra (Debi Osteen) Bacon.

Tom will be missed. He was a good man. I knew Tom long ago when I was a kid. He taught me how to play basketball and he is the one who inspired me to jump into remodeling. Wished I had got see him one last time.

“ Tom was a good and faithful friend, confidant, fellow "gym rat," expert rock musician, tequila connoisseur, political pundit, and remodeling expert. He was one of the smartest persons I've ever met, and we had many fun and crazy times. My wife, Pei-hsin, and I will miss him very much. His incredible courage in battling his sudden and terrible illness will be long admired by those who hung in there for him.

Pei-hsin and I wish to express our heartfelt condolences to his family, and especially to his mother, Shirley, and brother, Steve, whom we got to know just last year.

*I can still hear those carefully syncopated, and throbbing, bass lines
