“ I am so very sad to hear of Thor's passing. I will never forget the first time we met him. He was a 4 year old blond little firecracker. Although I had not seen the young man he become I heard only good things about him. Sending hugs to you all.

“ So sorry for the grief and pain this brings your way..there is no sharing this if it hasn’t happened to you.I hope you have many people to hold you up after the initial days end with caring for the details..there are many more days you might need an ear or a hug when others are thinking it’s over now. For everyone that has been part of Thor's life remember those things that you and he shared that were dear..the emptiness needs to be filled with something..

“ Oh my dear Suzanne and family, my heart started racing and then almost immediately became so heavy for you. I wish that I could reach out and hug you now , and offer you the love and the light that you so freely give to others. Please know that there is a village of believers behind you and lifting you up in prayers. Love, ❤️ Teri and Mingh

“ When I think of Thor, he is a young, golden haired little boy and he’s shyly smiling. He is carefree and picking apples, jumping waves, and playing. Rest in peace sweet Thor. You will be missed. ”
