“ Tim you left us way to soon. The 70's and early 80's were a bit of a blur, but I'm glad they didn't have cell phones for pics and vids back then. We had blast, those days were definitely an E Ticket ride!

“ Tim, I don't think we left much unsaid and for that I'm grateful. In 23 years you rarely let me down; other than dying the day before my birthday, but I guess I'll have to forgive you that.

*You were my best friend, my confident, my teacher.
I will cherish "As The The Chronicles Continue....." for all time.*

“ We spent the winter of 2014 camping at Gulf Coast Camping Resort and the day we got there I had to fly home to Maryland due to the unexpected death of my older brother while my wife stayed at the campground with our three dogs. While I was in MD the converter went bad on our motor home, so there was no electrical power for heat or AC, and since it was a Friday when it went bad, there was no one around to assist my wife with getting it fixed until after the weekend! Enter Tim, the only man in that campground to come to my wife's assistance. He brought over a battery charger, bypassed the converter, and got her up and running with lights. He also brought her a portable elect. heater since the furnace wouldn't run on the charger, and checked on her several times a day! Three days later when I returned to the campground, we located a replacement converter and Tim helped me install it. He was a wonderful, caring man, and Heaven's gain is this world's loss. Our condolences to Mary Kay and the rest of Tim's family. Rest in Peace Tim!

“ Tim let me use his vw bug to learn how to drive stick shift, handed me the keys and said go for it, just remember, theres no 2nd gear, so i ended up stuck at a 4way intersection, took anout 5 times to get through, all the while the other cars were waiting for me to get out of the intersection! We laughed really hard when i finally got back home and told him about it!! He was a very nice, kind person.

“ I will miss your never missed phone calls to me on both Mothers Day and his birthday September 26th and all the other great conversations we've had from houses to politics to peace the last 36 years. Wow, has it really been that long already? I really can't believe your gone!! A part of you will still live on for a little while longer, though neither of us knows exactly where there is. It all started back in a little town called Winona Mn. Those were the days of our youth, when life was good and before it got complicated. I will miss you dearly my friend!! Gone but never forgotten!!!!

“ Condolences to MK and Tim's family. While we haven't seen either of you for a few years, I still remember the generosity from the two of you (staying at your place in Denver, driving the yellow Mercedes, taking care of my girls, just to name a few) - he will be greatly missed!
