“ We met Tracy through the heart transplant group on Facebook, and discovered that she had her transplant three weeks before my husband at the same hospital. We were lucky enough to meet Tracy for lunch a few times, and share many stories. We winter in Bonita Spings but are in Ohio now and won't be able to attend the memorial. We send our sincere condolences to the family.

“ We are saddened to hear of Tracy's passing. We remember fondly her and her family's time in Hagerstown: Tracy's boundless good cheer, her work at Nick's Airport, the car in the Antietam, travels of Rocky, high fashion hand-me downs, Richard's skateboarding. Our thoughts are with Ann, Richard, Meredith, and Garrick.
