Val Arthur Turner, 71, a resident of Bonita Springs, FL since 1990, formerly of New Baltimore, MI, passed away January 25, 2024 in Bonita Springs. He was born October 15, 1952 in Detroit, MI to Dale and Vira (Ginger) Turner, who predeceased him in death.

Val is survived by his loving wife of 51 years, Rosemary Turner of Bonita Springs; two children, Jack Turner (Tina) of Fort Myers, FL, and Jamie Schwinghamer (Jeremy) of Estero, FL; two siblings, Sharon Zagata (Frank) of Livonia, MI, and Gregg Turner (Roseanne) of Northport, FL; brother-in law and sister-in law Michael and Nancy Brasile; bonus daughter, Ashley Stafford (Jason); three grandchildren, Kaitlyn, Isabella and Jacob; two bonus grandchildren and a great-grandchild, Alex, Aliyah and Emma; and many loving cousins, nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends.

Val was a devoted family man, who loved Rosemary deeply and was immensely proud of his children. Val made friends wherever he went, always had a kind word and a joke, never turned down a good time and worked tirelessly to provide for his family. As a child and young adult, he was an avid boater, fisherman, hunter and motorcycle enthusiast. After Val and Rosemary moved to Florida, he took up golf and cooking, and cemented his status as an expert angler. His passion for Michigan Wolverines football was unmatched, and Val's son will continue to fly his team flag on game day in his honor.

“ Uncle Val; always the Captain of the pontoon the family would rent while visiting in FL. We'd board in the morning with an abundance of Aunt Rose's breakfast sandwiches and hard boiled eggs and spend the day on the water. Uncle Val always knew where the dolphin should be and made sure our girls, toddlers at the time, got to see them. Thank you for those memories. ❤️

“ I’m so very sorry to hear 😞
It’s been a while but I can hear Uncle Val right now rooting for UofM, chanting for his favorite wwf wrestlers on the tv, and yelling go Jacko at his baseball games. Uncle Val sure was a stand out guy. I don’t know why but to this day when I hear guns in roses I flashback to the time where we were all at a family reunion and he was standing on someone’s leg to reach for a ballon or party favor of some sort that was strung up high on the pavilion and he went crashing to the pavement breaking his leg. I felt so bad especially when he lived in that leg casting forever! His legs had a story of their own! I feel like anytime we went to visit in Florida the fire ants had always went to town on them puppies 🐶!

Totally off the storybooks, but I think he’d get a kick out of this, my buddy’s girlfriend growing up her name was Valerie. I gave her the nickname Uncle Val. So basically after that everyone in our group of friends called her that for years, lol. 😂
