

Wesley Edwin Stillwaggon

August 25, 1942 - January 30, 2024

Wesley Edwin Stillwaggon, 81 of Naples, FL passed away Tuesday, January 30, 2024 at Vitas Hospice. Formerly of Upper Saddle River, NJ he moved to Bonita Springs, FL in 1998 before relocating to Naples in 2020. He was born August 25, 1942 in New York, NY a son of the late Edwin and Dorothy C. (Schumacher) Stillwaggon.

Wes was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution. He worked for Bell Telephone/Verizon for 35 years and retired as an Information Technology Engineer.

Wes was a boater from the time he was a young man and enjoyed being on the water. Wes adored the seaside town of Stone Harbor, NJ where he was a member of the Avalon Yacht Club, serving on their board, and was actively involved within the community.

After moving to Florida, he became an avid golfer and a member of the Art League of Bonita Springs where he and his wife helped raise funds to establish the children's programs.

Survivors include his beloved wife of 25 years, Rosalyn (D'Amico) Stillwaggon; children, Pamela Quaranta & spouse Andy Morse of Poughkeepsie, NY, John Stillwaggon & spouse Rich Ridolfo of Boston, MA, Cheryl Bozzelli & spouse Anthony Palumbo of Ramsey, NJ and Blaise P. Bozzelli & spouse Janice Smith of Maywood, NJ; and grandchildren, Brandon & Caity, Justin, Ryan, Cameron & Amanda and Mia Rose. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, William Stillwaggon and granddaughter Olivia Rose.

Funeral services will be held in New Jersey at a later date.

Online condolences may be offered by visiting www.ShikanyFuneralHome.com.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home, Family Owned Since 1978.