“ I remember when Bill and I would skip school once a month to go down to West Virginia. We would have steak, eggs, and beer in the morning. This was before his beetle got stolen. We were known to be Caos and Havic. Telling Mr. Trembly and Mr Warro that we took the wine home that they found in the tuba and gave it to our parents. NOT....I am going to miss the hell outta you. Rest in peace brother from another mother. I will see you again. Love, Ron Saus

“ One night when he and I was 15 yrs old we ...he...decided to take out the Volkswagen that was promised to him on his 16th birthday. We were out for trouble as usual. We were a bit wild in our youth. We put a $1 worth of gas in the “bug” and after riding around for 2 hours we had to ride in first gear for get the gauge down to the point his dad would not be wise to our outing. When he would get his father’s Toronado we were in heaven. We were never kind to cars as kids. I was hoping to see him at the next high school reunion. I am deeply saddened. We were very close for around 4 yrs, until we graduated and our paths diverged. He will always live in my heart.
