

William Boyd Gillingham

January 7, 1943 - May 13, 2023

William Boyd Gillingham 80, of Estero, FL died on May 13, 2023, at Gulf Coast Medical Center. Boyd was born on February 7, 1943, in Beaver Falls, PA, a son of the late Harold C. and Maeola (McCally) Gillingham. He had been a resident of Southwest Florida since 1978, first living in Naples, then Bonita Springs, and finally in Estero.

He attended Geneva College in Beaver Falls and soon after began his career as a butcher.

“Pap” as he was affectionally known to his grandchildren, will be greatly missed by all that knew him.

A humble, hardworking, quiet man with a huge heart, loved nothing more than spending time with his family and watching his beloved Pittsburgh Steelers on a Football Sunday.

He is survived by his son, Timothy B. Gillingham, and his wife, Kirsten of Estero, FL; three grandchildren, Payton Longo, Derik Gillingham, and Lauren Gillingham. He is also survived by his brother, Jay E. Gillingham, and his wife, Margaret of Beaver Falls, PA.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Carole Ann Gillingham who died September 3, 2021, and his daughter, Tracie Lyn Gillingham who died August 12, 2008.

Private services were held by the family.

Tribute Wall

“ Boyd was a great man. He always had a smile on his face and was kind and gentle. Boyd was my cousin, a great baseball player and a great human being. I always enjoyed seeing him when the holidays came around. I will never forget him.
