

William P. Morrison

April 27, 1955 - September 12, 2023

William Peter Morrison 68, of Bonita Springs, died on September 12, 2023, after a valiant fight with cancer. Bill was born on April 27, 1955, in Albany, New York a son of the late William J. and Ruth E. (O'Donnell) Morrison. He had been a resident of Bonita Springs since 1994 coming from Glens Falls, NY.

Bill is survived by his loving wife, Deborah D. Morrison of Bonita Springs, FL; his step-daughter, Jody Leigh Hamm Lutz (Howard) of San Antonio, TX, and their daughter, Mary Katherine Lutz of Austin, TX and his stepson, Jason P. Hamm of Houston, TX. He is also survived by his sister, Judy Morrison Fruscione (Mark) of Peachtree City, GA and his brother, Ronald William Morrison (Patty) of Albany, NY; and his nieces and nephews, Anthony Fruscione, Sarah Hyde, and Joe Fruscione of Peachtree City, GA, Valerie Napoli of Saratoga Springs, NY and Ryan Morrison of Albany, NY.

He was preceded in death by his father, William J. Morrison; his mother, Ruth E. Tallon and his sister, Deborah A. Morrison who died in 2018.

He was a graduate of the Christian Brothers Academy and received his associate degree from Albany Business College. He was the former owner of Morrison Motors in Albany, NY. After moving to Bonita Springs, he owned and operated Bonita Boat and Yacht Services for 22 years.

He was a Master Captain, a Merchant Mariner officer, and a member of the US Coast Guard Auxiliary.

He will be remembered for his sense of humor. Jody and Jason called him MacGyver because he could fix anything. Lauren, AP, and Jeffrey called him David Hasselhoff for his good looks. Mary-Katherine called him Cappy because he would let her sit on his lap as he captained the pontoon boat down the Imperial River.

Bill fought cancer for 3 years, never complaining. Let him rest in Peace. LOL

A memorial service for Bill is being planned for February 2024 and will be announced when it is finalized.

To sign his guest register or to leave online condolences please visit www.ShikanyFuneralHome.com.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home Family Owned and Operated Since 1978.

Tribute Wall

“ William P. Morrison

October 09, 2023 at 03:40 AM

*I just found out about Bill's death. Very sad makes me very sad. We were friends for such a long time. We had a good time in life out in California.
I know bill is up there living a good life. I will see him on the other side. We lost contact later in life. But we both lived our life I hope to see him on the other side. I really do Sorry for this Condolences to his wife haven't seen Ronnie at a long time either.
Bill was a good guy really was.
Joel Picker*

Joel. Picker - February 10, 2025 at 06:14 PM