“ *Dear Paula and family,
I remember your wedding like it was yesterday! Loved sharing in dinners at your home in Troy. Bill, as you, we're always so gracious. The last time we were together was driving down to Kentucky to Dan and Meridith's wedding! What fun and we convinced Bill to let the women drive!
May he rest in peace.
Deepest sympathy,

“ We watched him suffer, day by day;
It caused us bitter grief;
To see him slowly pine away;
And could not give relief.
His weary hours and days of pain;
His troubled nights are past;
And in our aching hearts we know;
He has found sweet rest at last.
'Tis sweet to know we will meet again;
Where parting is no more;
And my dear husband I loved so well;
Has only gone before.
God knows how much I miss him;
He counts the tears I shed;
And whispers, "Hush, he only sleeps;
Your husband is not dead."
Some day, some time, my years shall see;
The face I loved so well.
Some day, some time, his hand I'll clasp;
And never say farewell.

*Rest in peace, my love,
Paula*

“Dad,

Your love, your kindness, your understanding and your wisdom will carry on with all those that loved you. Your generosity, benevolence and integrity will be remembered. I was always proud to call you my father. Sadly, you will be missed and it is hard to say goodbye, but you will always live on in our hearts.
