“ Before buying in Sterling Oaks Naples, my wife and I traveled to Naples to enjoy the weather and the opportunity for me to play tennis. It was on the tennis courts where I met Win and we became good friends. Win was always a gentleman despite the competitiveness of the tennis roster. He suffered deeply with the loss of Corliss a few years back. We will miss him along with his friends who together, enjoyed brunch at the American Legion and coffee on the club house veranda.
